

Although we may not have seen many signs of summer we know it's only a month away, and summer for Circling Hawks Centre means many things. In our continued efforts to keep our valued customers up to date and informed of our events please find listed below points of interest.

The store summer hours have started, we are currently open again seven days a week.
Monday to Saturday we are here from 10:00am – 5:00pm and Sundays 11:00am – 4:00pm.

Thanks to all those for being patient while we did a garden spring clean, the garden is now open. You can enjoy the meditation labyrinth, fairy garden and tipi during store hours.

For those of you that didn't have a chance to visit Whispering Spirit Gallery last year you are encouraged to do so. Whispering Spirit Gallery is located in the loft of Circling Hawks Centre barn; there you will find unique art in a variety of mediums created by local artists including Lynette Brooker, owner of Circling Hawks Centre.

Tarot Readings will continue to take place throughout the summer. Tarot readings are $45.00 for a half hour session with Emile, our reader of the past three years.

Dates include: June 6th and 28th.
July 11th and 22nd
August 1st and 22nd

Drumming will continue this summer as well, our first drumming date will be May 29th from 7pm -9pm in the barn. Everyone is welcome the more the merrier. Future dates will be post on our website for those that are interested in attending.
